A GRIM FUTURE FOR WHITES

IN THE "NEW" SOUTH AFRICA !

Publication Changes.

At our recent League Council meeting, it was decided to change the publication date from bi-monthly to quarterly. This we felt was a more realistic target as we were normally only achieving five issues per year instead of the proposed six. Now we are going quarterly, we will not only have more time to prepare, but this decision will also eliminate the need to increase subscription rates. Also to compensate, we hope in the not too distant future, to be able to increase the size of the publication.

My thanks to those readers who wrote giving their preferences, it was heartening to read that so many of you were willing to pay more to keep bi-monthly, and a few even demanded that we publish monthly! Thank You!

We have now obtained some new software which when mastered, we hope will improve the appearance of Sentinel, and from next issue we have the services of a decent proof reader, so hopefully you will see less mistakes! You can help tremendously by providing material for publication, newscuttings, articles and branch news are all wanted. Please also try to sell subscriptions, remember, we don't have the Board of Deputies financing us!

Incitement to Violence ??

Following the recent SWP/TUC anti-racism march through East London, a rally was held, at which a Black Labour MP, Dianne Abbott, stated that "we will do whatever it takes to drive the BNP off of the streets of this country" Brave words, that could put the safety of every Labour candidate in jeopardy, if Militant Nationalists were to decide to drive the Labour Party off the streets by any means necessary.

But more disturbing is the "coincidence" that since Ms Abbott made these threats to the BNP, ONE OF THEIR CANDIDATES HAS BEEN BLINDED, and another supporter was SEVERELY INJURED BY A LETTER BOMB.

IS THIS WHAT Ms ABBOTT MEANT "BY ANY MEANS NECESSARY"???

Sad Losses.

The Nationalist Movement has been dealt a severe blow with the loss of not one, but two great Comrades in the last few weeks.

Jan Kruls was a enthusiastic worker for the European, and Leon Degrelle, was an inspiration of Bravery and Fortitude.

For them their battle is over, for us it is not. We must not just remember them, but we must pledge to continue their fight, until we achieve the victory that they never saw.

OBITUARY

It is with great sadness that we have heard of the death of our Racial Comrade.....

Jan Kruls.

2.3.1916.-19.3.1994.

Jan Kruls was for many years the Leader of the Northern League, and the editor of its journal "The Northlander".

He spent most of his childhood and youth living in Indonesia, which was then the Dutch East Indies. It was here that he joined the Dutch N.S. group the NSB.

In 1940 Holland was occupied, and because of his politics Jan Kruls was arrested, interned in a prison ship, and deported to the Dutch West Indies, now Surinam.

This decision probably saved his life, as had he have stayed in Indonesia he would probably suffered the fate of most Whites when the Japanese captured the Island in 1942.

After the war, he went back to Holland, where he worked for many years in the Civil Service.

With a strong interest in the Culture and Folkways of the Northern European peoples, he took over the leadership of the Northern League in the 1960's.

It was through this organisation that he organised many "Euro-Folk" festivals, and became close to the German Ring organisation.

Jan was a good Comrade to the League of St George, and his enthusiasm and extensive knowledge of European Folklaw will be sadly missed.

"Rest now Comrade, your task is done"

Murdered For Race and Nation.

White Nationalists Murdered in South Africa.

The treatment of Whites under a future ANC government was brutally demonstrated when three injured members of the AWB were slaughtered by a Black Policeman, following clashes between rebel black gunmen, and White Nationalists in Bophuthatswana, South Africa.

The Whites, all Afrikaners, were part of a 2000 strong force of Volksfront volunteers, who had crossed the border into the Independent Black homeland, to help to put down a rebellion by ANC supporters, against the Bophuthatswana President Lucas Mangope.

The President had decided, that like the Volksfront, his homeland would not take part in the forthcoming South African elections. This led to an ANC inspired rebellion, in which several Government loyalists were killed, and shops and homes looted.

The VF leader, Constand Viljoen, after secret talks with President Nagope, ordered into action some 2000 of his members, to assist the Magope regime. Believing that they were acting in a support role to the Bophuthatswana Defence Force, they were surprised when soldiers from this group began firing on them.

As the VF men were re-grouping, they were ambushed by a group of black ANC rebel soldiers, and a Blue Mercedes car carrying three men was fired on, killing one man instantly, and wounding two others.

The car stopped, and the two wounded survivors asked for medical assistance. Instead of providing humanitarian aid, the crowd of blacks jeered the wounded men.

To their shame, the several White photographers who were present did nothing to assist the wounded, and for 15 minutes they lay in agony.

Finally a rebel black Policemen swaggered out of the crowd. "Can you get us medical assistance?" asked Alwyn Walfaardt, a White farmer from Transval. The Policemen ignored his plea, and walked over to examine other VF man, Connie Ulys, who was by now semi-conscious. "please God get us help" said Mr Ulys" in reply the Policeman shot him in the chest.

He then turned back to Alwyn Walfaardt, who was by now lying face down on the ground, in the classic position of surrender, and fired a shot into the back of his head.

This was the "humanitarian aid" as instructed by the ANC.

With massive amounts of money being poured into the ANC funds by Western Governments, and the White opposition parties fragmented, an ANC electoral victory is a foregone conclusion.

South African Whites will then face a horrifying future of Rape and Murder. The normal programme of a Communist victory.

Leaked documents in Britain have revealed, that this murderous scenario is recognised even by the British government as being probable, and secret plans have already been made for a massive airlift of some 350,000 White refugees.

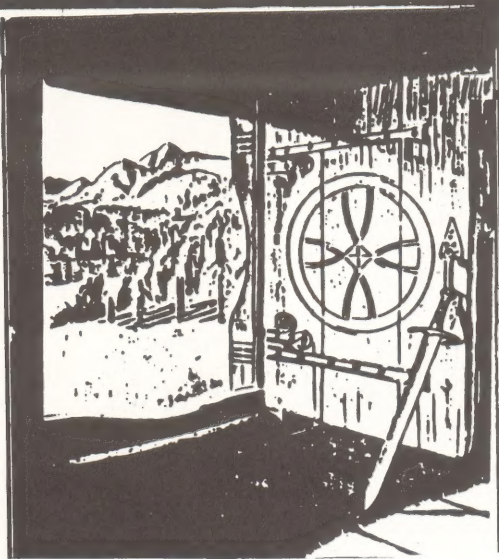

This is the future for a people, that from a jungle, created the most civilised and prosperous country in the entire African continent.

Victims of Communism, Capitalism, and BETRAYAL by their OWN RACE!

MP's Demand the release of Neil Latimer.

A cross-party group of 85 MP's have demanded that the case of former UDR soldier Neil Latimer be reviewed, and that Latimer be freed whilst the review takes place.

Latimer was one of six UDR soldiers accused of the murder of IRA terrorist Adrian Carroll in 1983.

Two were acquitted, and the others, who became known as the "UDR 4" were jailed.

In 1992, following a challenge of the evidence given by the sole witness, a Catholic woman, three of the four were released, leaving Neil Latimer still imprisoned. During this appeal, Police handling of the case was condemned by the appeal Judge, but Latimer's appeal was rejected.

But, now the group of MP's which includes Labour's Neil Kinnock and the Liberal Democrat's David Alton, are lobbying the Northern Ireland Secretary to review the case again. The medical records of the witness have been examined, and prove that she is and was "mentally unreliable".

Israeli Gangs "Target" Britain.

A Police spokesman has admitted for the first time that the crack intelligence gathering organization, the National Criminal Intelligence Service is targetting well organised gangs of Jewish criminals operating in Britain.

The NCIS is tasked to gather intelligence on organized crime syndicates that pose a threat to Britain, and regularly works with both Police and Customs.

The gangs, which are organized into "cells" are part of a International Israeli network, which specializes in drug trafficking, money laundering and fraud, and are very influential in Amsterdam, Frankfurt and Paris.

Many of the members hold dual British and Israeli nationality, which allows them to move freely around Europe.

Private Members Bill Fails

A private members bill, which would have made "Racial attacks" a specific criminal offence, has been defeated in Parliament.

The bill, was constructed by the Board of Deputies, and presented by MP Hartley Booth. Mr Booth is better known for his recent resignation from the post of Private Secretary to the Foreign Office, following revelations that he was having an affair with Emily Barr, a 22 year old researcher, who had connections with the "neo terrorist" Socialist Workers Party.

The Government's Education Minister John Patten has decided to continue to allow British taxpayers money to fund college students political activities through the Students Union.

HOME NEWS 2:

COLIN JORDAN WINS MASSIVE DAMAGES

A complaint initiated by Labour MP Gerald Kaufman, which led to an unlawful Police raid on the home of veteran Nationalist Colin Jordan, has cost the taxpayer some £14,000 in damages and costs.

In June 1991, at his home near Harrogate West Yorkshire, Mr Colin Jordan was the victim of an early morning raid, by Police with a search warrant, authorising them to search the premises for "anti-semitic material".

A discussion with the officer leading the raid, revealed that the Police were acting following a complaint from Labour MP Gerald Kaufman, who alleged that he had been sent through the post a sticker, which he found offensive, and bore the imprint of Gothic Ripples an organisation with which Mr Jordan was connected.

Unfortunately for the Police, they had neglected to check the date of the warrant, which was in fact out of date, and therefore their action was unlawful.

Mr Jordan challenged the validity of the warrant, and the subsequent seizure of material from his home right from the beginning, and seemed to have suffered a serious setback, when the Attorney General gave his consent for a prosecution to begin against Mr Jordan, based on some items of literature seized in the Police raid.

Mr Jordan conducted his own case, and took the matter to the High Court in London, where he successfully obtained an injunction halting the prosecution against him, and was granted a Judicial Review on the matter of the outdated warrant.

On the eve of that review, the Police legal department conceded that the raid, and the seizure of material was unlawful, and undertook to restore all of the material to Mr Jordan, and to cease any prosecutions of him involving said material.

The High Court, also awarded Mr Jordan damages and costs, the amount to be set by the Harrogate Registry. Negotiations followed, and failing to reach a satisfactory conclusion, Mr Jordan arranged for the case for damages to be heard by Leeds High Court. Finally, just days before the case was due to go to trial, solicitors for the Police offered Mr Jordan £10,000 in damages, and £4000 as costs, and this was finally agreed.

The £14,000 Sticker.

TUC ANTI-RACISM PROTEST

"THEY CAME, THEY MARCHED, AND THEN THEY WERE GONE."

Police estimated that some 20,000 marchers attended, the "Unite Against Racism" march and rally, held in East London recently. The march, supposedly organized by the Trade Union Congress, in fact looked more "SWP" than "TUC", judging by the posters that appeared advertising the event.

Also prominent on the march itself, were the banners of "YRE" the "anti-fascist" puppet group controlled by Militant. This may cause some embarrassment to the TUC General Secretary John Monks, whose Labour Party bosses, have already proscribed Militant, and expelled known activists within their Party. Labour MP's Dianne Abbott, and Tony Blair may also have some explaining to do after addressing the Militant dominated rally!

Ms Abbott, may also be called in to see the Police to explain her threat that "we will drive the BNP off of the streets by ANY MEANS NECESSARY!". This could clearly be construed as a threat of violence, and a complaint has been lodged by a reporter from League Sentinel who was at the rally.

Predictably, all of the rally speakers condemned the "racial attacks" on local Asians, but those on Whites, such as the horrific attack on Paul Spicer who nearly had his hand severed from his arm, when attacked by a gang of 15 Asians, were overlooked. As was the gang rape of a 31 year old White woman by six Asian youths in nearby Spitalfields.

The Liberal-Democrat controlled local council, refused to allow the marchers to use a local park for the rally, fearing a repeat of the Welling riot, and local Liberal Councillors on the Isle of Dogs banned the protesters from their area, fearing that the Islanders would see the type of people opposing the BNP, and thus boost the BNP's changes of winning complete control of the Island in the forthcoming elections.

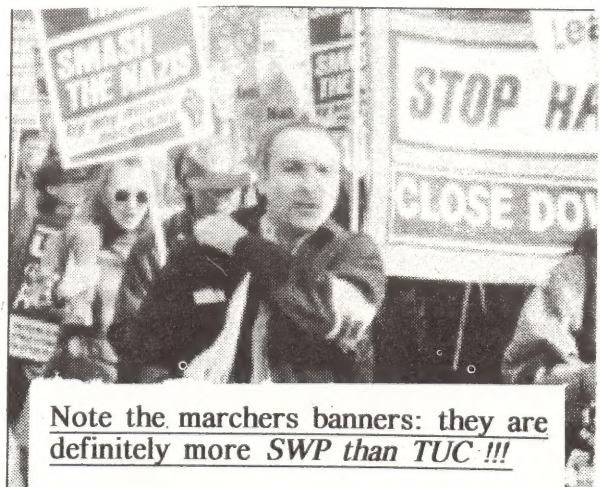

Generally, the local East Enders, ignored the marchers, most of whom had been "bussed in" from as far away as Scotland. Even members of the local Asian community seemed to prefer attending to their shops and stalls, rather than "march against racism."

Some locals obviously did object to their normally peaceful weekend being disturbed, and several of the protesters coaches that were parked in nearby Queensbridge Road, were damaged. This despite a Police guard on them. Several more were damaged by flying bricks as they left the area.

Some protesters on their way home, were incensed, when from their coaches, they witnessed BNP councillor Derek Beackon, and some of his colleagues busy canvassing outside the "Salmon and Ball" pub, one of Mosley's old drinking haunts. They shouted, and threatened, but none dared to alight from their coaches.

One BNP veteran perhaps best summed up the day, when he said, "they came, they marched and then they went. BUT WE ARE HERE TO STAY !!!

Note the marchers banners: they are definitely more SWP than TUC !!!

A New Wave of Immigrants for Britain ?

Almost ten million immigrants, mainly of Turkish origin, will become full European citizens, complete with residential and voting rights, if the European Commission accept a proposal being put forward by the Irish representative, Padraig Flynn.

At present the immigrants only have "Guestworker" status, and are employed on a fixed contract basis in many European Countries.

In Germany, France, and Belgium, "Guestworkers" have always been regarded as "foreigners" by the native population, and with mass unemployment are now regarded as "surplus to requirements".

Consequently, many Governments are now coming under pressure to start repatriation. Certainly France has already begun this process, and in Germany, where "Guestworkers" are often the targets of violence by young Germans frustrated at being unable to get a job or a home in their "own" country, the Government is likely to follow France's example.

But, if the Irish proposal is accepted, then these "foreigners" will become the new "Citizens of Europe", and not only be free to stay, but will also be free to move to other European countries to live.

With Britain offering the best, and most easily obtainable social security and housing benefits, it is highly probable that many of the ten million would choose us as their new home.

A foretaste of the "benefits" of large scale Turkish immigration can be seen quite clearly in North London, where several thousand Turks already live, having arrived as "Kurdish refugees".

The Kurds, who fled political repression in Turkey, are mainly communists from two rival political groups. The PPK (Kurdish Workers Party) and the DEV SOL (Revolutionary Left Party).

Although not large, they have a combined membership in Britain of some 900 members, they have already adopted the normal communist tactic of extreme violence, to the extent that the local Police have set up a special squad to investigate their activities. Already, the Police have discovered that the two groups have been operating a massive "protection racket" against local shopkeepers, and have estimated an annual turnover of tens of thousands of pounds. Businessmen who refuse to pay, have been assaulted, and several premises have been firebombed.

With racial violence on the increase in Britain, a further influx of immigrants would almost certainly turn parts of our country into permanent Racial Battlefields. The Government must veto this proposal, and instead initiate a counter that demands the repatriation of "Guestworkers" from the whole of Europe.

As hosts, it is time to tell our guests to leave!

Election Special: Election Special: Election Special:Local Election Special*Go Forward, and WIN!

In the next few weeks Britain faces a period of intense electioneering, with both local and European elections being held. In addition to these, there are at least three parliamentary bye-elections taking place, and this will at last give the whole Nationalist Movement the opportunity to gauge what progress they have made in building support for our cause. As we understand it, all of the major Nationalist parties are taking part in the elections, and here we give a brief rundown of the "state of play".

British National Party

The BNP have been attracting most of the media attention, with their sitting councillor in the East London area of the Isle of Dogs.

In addition to retaining this seat, the BNP are fielding two more candidates in the area, with the hope of gaining control of the "Neighbourhood Council".

It is understood that the BNP will not be standing any councillors in the Euro elections, which is a surprise, considering the expanded constituencies that these cover, and the vast amount of propaganda that can thus be distributed. John Tyndall has announced that he will stand in the Parliamentary bye election at Dagenham.

National Front

The National Front have announced that they hope to contest four Euro seats, including Mid-Beds and Birmingham West. If all four are contested, this will give a literature distribution of some ONE AND A QUARTER MILLION Nationalist leaflets through the letterboxes.

In addition to these, the NF are planning to contest around twenty seats in the local council elections.

In the Parliamentary bye-elections, a former official of the Transport and General Workers Union, Bob Croucher, has been chosen to fight the East London, Barking constituency, a vacancy created by the welcome death of Labour Lesbian, Jo Richardson. Unfortunately, this serious event will be somewhat debased by the decision of the "Raving Loony Party" to put up a candidate.

BOB CROUCHER

The Third Way.

The Third Way, have not given us exact figures as to how many candidates they will be standing in the Euro elections, but they are definitely standing in some areas, on a "Britain Out" policy.

Similarly, accurate figures for council candidates are not yet available, but judging from what we have seen, they are certainly conducting a most professional campaign in the London suburb of Havering, where candidate Graham Williamson, has been attracting a great deal of favourable media attention, and should do well.

Interference

There can be no doubt, that this series of elections will again see the unwanted, and often illegal interference, by groups such as the Anti-Nazi League, and YRE. Election Agents must be prepared to act swiftly in complaining to the Returning Officer about any leaflets, stickers or canvassing, by organisations which are not fielding candidates. BE VIGILANT and if unhappy COMPLAIN. The future of Britain is in YOUR HANDS! DON'T LET US DOWN!!!

Election Special: Election Special : Election Special:

BNP Candidate BLINDED

The local election campaigns have started with a campaign of terror launched by extreme left groups against Nationalists. The first incident was a letter bomb sent to the BNP's bookshop in Welling, which exploded, badly injuring 57 year old Alf Waite, who was an election volunteer. The terror campaign was then escalated when five BNP members out canvassing in East London, one of whom was a candidate, were attacked by 15 masked men armed with iron bars. 53 year old Peter Hart was badly injured, and the candidate, 33 year old Michael Davidson, was BLINDED in one eye.

The BNP have offered a £1000 reward for the identity of the attackers!

Election Shorts

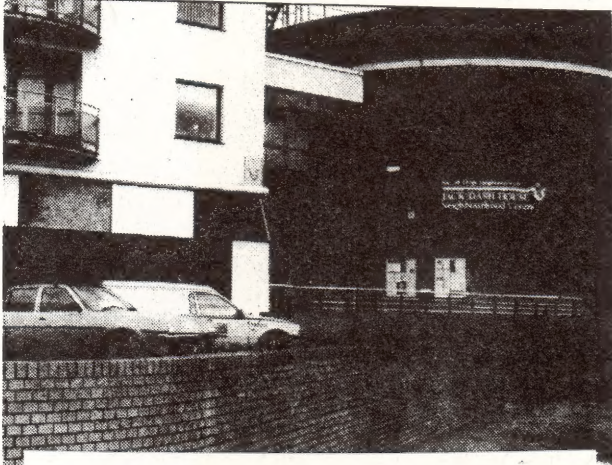

Liberal Democrat leader Paddy Ashdown, promised East London Liberals, he would take a "personal role" in the forthcoming Isle of Dogs election campaign, in a concerted effort to defeat the BNP.

A suggestion that all other parties refrain from standing candidates on the Island, thus creating a straight fight between the Lib-Dems and the BNP has been rejected by Labour.

* * * * *

A spokesman for Tower Hamlets BNP branch, has denied reports, that if the Party gains power on the Isle of Dogs, it would change the name of the local Town Hall "Jack Dash House" named after an East London Communist, to "SIR OSWALD MOSLEY HOUSE".

* * * * *

Jack Dash or Oswald Mosley House ??

Police investigate ANL Leaflets.

The Police are still investigating leaflets issued by the Anti-Nazi League during the Feltham Council bye-election in November, which misrepresented both the policies of the National Front, and the beliefs of the candidate Ray O Connor. The ANL were NOT contesting the election themselves.

The National Front complained both during and after the election, to the Returning Officer and the Police, and it would now seem that the leaflets could be in contravention of the Representation of the Peoples Act, section 75.

Copies of the leaflet have been given to the Crown Prosecution Service, and the Police Special Branch are trying to establish the identity of the publishers.

OBITUARY

Leon Degrelle
1906-1994

IN MEMORY OF A EUROPEAN SOLDIER

It was with deep sadness that we received the news of the recent death of Leon Degrelle in Malaga, Southern Spain, at the age of 87.

One of the most romantic figures on the European Right in the twentieth century, Degrelle was that unique combination of journalist, political orator and professional soldier, who epitomised Oswald Mosley's concept of the modern "Though-Dead" man.

Most famous as the SS General who commanded the Wallonian volunteers on the Eastern Front against Stalin's communist system, Degrelle began his political career in 1930 as head of a publishing house called Christus Rex, soon shortened to Rex. He launched a series of weekly papers which worried the authorities but was avidly taken up by Belgian youth. The young Degrelle became more political and vocal and soon gained a reputation as an orator at meetings all over Belgium. In a period of strikes and unemployment, he drew attention to financial scandals, attacking the established parties as the "pourris"... the "corrupt". He stressed a need for a reform of the Belgian state along corporate lines and formed the Rex party which put up candidates at the elections of May 1936.

The result of that election surprised everyone, including the Rexists. At that time, Belgium was governed by a coalition of Liberals, Socialists and Catholics and the Rexists did not expect to win more than five seats. Their achievement was to secure thirty-three. Degrelle and his Rexists had little funds, no daily paper, little experience and few activists. Just three weeks before this election, by scraping together some funds, they succeeded in launching a daily paper called "Le Pays Reel" in which Degrelle used his considerable journalistic skills to the full. The new paper's cartoons were excellent and were aimed at attacking leading politicians and corruption in high places. The paper, at once, proved its success.

All the forces of reaction, from the Communists to the Catholics, combined forces against Degrelle's Rexists at a time when Belgium needed a radical change in political style. Within three years the Rexist representation declined down to four seats although Degrelle eventually got into parliament at the elections of April 1939.

The following year, Belgium became embroiled in the European war and, on the pretext of being a potential "fifth columnist", Degrelle was arrested without charge or trial....drawing a parallel with our own patriotic Oswald Mosley. In Degrelle's case, he was treated brutally. He was tortured in concentration camps until the German forces arrived to liberate him.

The German thrust against Russia in June 1941 was of special significance in Degrelle's life.

Unlike the Establishment collaborationists, he viewed the anti-Communist crusade in the East as an opportunity to elevate the position of his country as an honourable and worthy partner in the New Order. The defence of European civilisation transcended petty-National rivalry as volunteers from all European countries stepped forward to fill the ranks of the Waffen SS. Degrelle's offer to raise a French speaking Wallonian division was gratefully accepted by Hitler's forces with Degrelle joining them as a private soldier and ending up as an SS General.

The campaigns on the Eastern Front were fought in some of the worst conditions in military history with Degrelle being wounded seven times, often severely.

The Wallonian Division, like the Flemish Langemarck Division, elevated the Belgian volunteers in Hitler's eyes and, at a private meeting, Hitler was to tell Degrelle in emotional terms, "If I have a son, I want him to be like you".

Degrelle's exploits with his brave men eventually earned him the Knight's Cross of the Iron Cross, the only non-German to receive that honour. With the war coming to a close, Degrelle tried to muster his Wallonians for the last defence of Europe but the situation became hopeless.

Never flinching from any hazard, he was assisted by a German airman in his escape from Oslo to the safe haven of Spain.

The Heinkel's fuel tanks were limited to such a degree that disaster seemed inevitable. It crashed into the sea off Spain but friendly Spanish locals risked their lives to go out and rescue a man who was ever prepared to lay down his own life for Europe.

Degrelle settled in Spain near Torremolinos and continued to address Nationalist rallies through into the 1970s. He became a successful industrialist, richly deserving that success after the extraordinary sacrifices he had made in the years past.

Leon Degrelle, you shall remain an inspiration to all those who believe in Europe, its civilisation, its culture and its people.

In your own words, from your book "Campaign in Russia", "We had fought for Europe, its faith, its civilisation. We have reached the very height of sincerity and sacrifice. Sooner or later Europe and the World would have to recognise the justice of our cause and the purity of our gift".

Thank You Dear Comrade, your "struggle" is over. We must now take up the torch that you carried so bravely.

ITALY

A Nationalist Alliance headed by Silvio Berlusconi, which includes Italy's two premier Nationalist groups, MSI and the The Lombardy League look certain to take control of the country after the first round of elections.

GERMANY

NPD Boss wins appeal on Holocaust Denial.

Gunther Deckert, leader of the National Democratic Party (NPD) won his appeal against a one year suspended prison sentence, and a £4000 fine, imposed when found guilty of promoting "Holocaust Denial". Mr Deckert was charged following a lecture that he organised in which an invited guest, Mr Fred Leuchter told the audience that there were "no gas chambers at Auschwitz," and in fact there was "no holocaust".

German authorities have decided to abandon the "warcrimes trial" of 90 year old Boleslav Maikoyskis, on the grounds that he is too ill to continue.

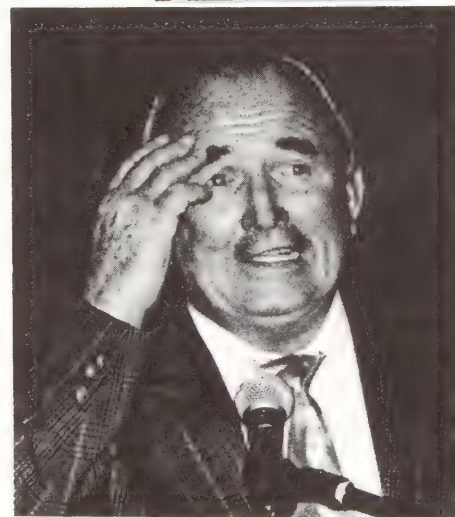

The trial, which was being held in Munster, had started in 1990, following Mr Maikoyskis deportation from the United States, where he had lived for several years.

Born in Latvia, Mr Maikoyskis had been accused of ordering the hanging of a Jewish terrorist in 1942, and the shooting of several Jewish civilians. The "evidence" had been provided by the Russians.

A spokesman for the Republikaner Party has confirmed that "friendly talks" had taken place between the leader of the Party, Franz Schonhuber, and Max Streibl, a senior official of the Bavarian Christian Social Union.

Both the "REP" and the CSU are anti-EEC and promote the idea of "Germany for the Germans", but the CSU have been more successful in elections and are junior partners in Germany's ruling coalition.

Eleven "anti-Fascists" were injured in clashes with Police as they tried to attack an election meeting held by the "Rep" in Baden-Wurttemberg.

Franz Schonhuber of the Republikaner Party holds "Unity" talks with the Bavarian CSU.

UNITED STATES

U.S. Nationalist Harold Covington, has announced that he will be forming a new political party. Mr Covington, the highly respected author of "Resistance", has decided to name the new party the National Socialist White Peoples Party.

AUSTRIA

An attempt by Austria's "Christian Democratic Peoples Party", to win votes from the Nationalist "Freedom Party" led by George Haider, by campaigning on a "morals and family values" programme, has badly backfired when it was discovered that the Christian Democrat nominated president, Thomas Klestil, had been having a long and passionate affair with a colleague, and his wife promptly left the presidential palace, announcing that she would be starting divorce proceedings immediately.

FRANCE

France has also seen the extreme embarrassment of politicians recently, when the leader of the Communist Party, George Marchais, resigned the post that he had held for 21 years, when it was discovered that he was not a wartime "resistance fighter" as he had always claimed, but instead had been a voluntary worker in a German factory making warplanes.

Ian Stuart: "cause of death is still a mystery"

Accident investigators, probing the death of Nationalist musician Ian Stuart, who was killed in a car crash recently, have told the Police that they were unable to find defects in the crash vehicle which could have led to the accident.

The Derbyshire Coroner stated that "there is no rhyme or reason to what happened, and we are still no nearer to finding out what caused this tragic accident."

Changes for 1994.

At a recent meeting of the League Council it was decided to change the publication of League Sentinel from bi-monthly to quarterly. This would avoid increasing subscription prices. However, membership fees would be raised to £10 per annum.

This figure will include both a subscription to Sentinel, and free admission to an annual social gathering.

As previously, members will continue to be recruited only from League Sentinel subscribers.

Also at the meeting, a new President was elected, and two more members added to the Council. Plans for other social gatherings will be announced later. Members and subscribers who wish to travel with the League to the annual gathering in Dixmuide should write now, enclosing a SAE.

"Sue the Police"

In issue 23, we advised Nationalists who were being harassed by the Police as they carried out lawful political activities, to seriously consider adopting the tactics successfully used by the "left", and "sue the Police". Several readers wrote condemning this suggestion, claiming it would be "a waste of time and resources."

To these critics, we would like to point out that as recently as mid-March, the City of London Police agreed to pay £40,000 in an "out of court settlement" to six people arrested during a demonstration in 1989.

The six demonstrators were arrested by the Police on April 7th 1989 as they protested about the "Guilford 4" outside the City's Guildhall, where Prime Minister Thatcher was hosting a visit by Mikhail Gorbachev. The demonstrators were arrested and held just over four hours, before being released without charge.

As they felt that their arrests were part of a Police tactic deliberately planned to prevent their "right of peaceful protest", the six sued the Police for "wrongful arrest, and false imprisonment".

After an internal investigation by the Police Complaints Department, the Police legal department offered £10,000 compensation.

This offer was refused, and just hours before the case was due to go to court, the offer was increased to £40,000.

As previously explained in issue 23, most ordinary Police Officers are quite sympathetic to law abiding Nationalists, but are often subjected to "politically inspired orders" from Senior Officers.

Litigation is not only a way of ensuring your "Political Rights", but it could be a useful way of raising much needed funds for your branch or Party.

Think About IT !!!

Political Censorship

The Government seem determined to turn a "blind eye" to teachers imposing their own form of "Political Censorship" in our schools.

In London, Red teachers from the SWP and YRE recently encouraged schoolchildren to stage a "walkout" from their classes, in a protest against "racism", an act which was not only illegal, but purely "Political".

Whilst at the other end of the country in Newcastle, Red teachers have formed a new organisation, "Teachers Against Nazi's", to protest at the BNP leafletting schools with THEIR views on racism.

Political Censorship is not a teachers role, and is not part of the National Schools Curriculum.

We say that Political Censorship in our schools should be fought, "by any means necessary".
